

We met as a group to work on the presentation for our week 6 review. We completed our timing diagram, discussed what was needed for design architecture, and assigned slides. We also made sure that we had covered everything that was needed or requested for this review.