

P16315

Wire Shielding Feasibility

In order to have the most accurate measurements, the wires running up the impeller shaft should be shielded. To satisfy this requirement, prefabricated shielded wire with 3 internal wires (Positive, Negative, and Differential) to connect the transmitter to the receiver. This should remove any noise that the system may encounter.