

Interview Questions:

Four Walls:

- How involved were you with this project last year?
  - Do you work with Enlace, El Sauce citizens/business owners?
    - Do you have any contact information that we don't?
  - Where does Four Walls work, around the world?
- Does Four Walls exclusively vacuum form sheets? Why was vacuum forming selected?
  - Can we make other sizes of plastic sheets?
  - Who will be vacuum forming the sheets?
  - What are the requirements for a plastic sheet to be able to be vacuum formed?
- What are the greatest priorities?
  - Portability?
  - Electricity use?
  - Simplicity of build? Size?
  - Durability?
  - Cost?
  - Ease of use? Who will be using the machine?

- How many plastic bottles (or amount of plastic chips) are needed to create one sheet?
- What would you consider the most important constraint for the melter?
- What is the ideal goal for the amount of sheets produced per year?
  - Estimated cost of each unit?
  - When should small businesses see a profit?
  - Will this device be reproduced by others? Who owns the IP?
  - Are there plans to commercialize this past the El Sauce community and to other areas or countries?

Other customer questions:

- Do we need to worry about sorting plastic?
  - PVC contamination of PET
- Do we need to worry about designing or building a shredder?
- Who will be using this device, who is the primary customer?

- How often would the machines be used?
- Where is the machine ideally going to be used?
- Where are the chips coming from?
- Would the manuals need to be in spanish?
- How important would a visual display for information be to the user?
- Are the chips uniform?